Day-by-day itinerary

1

Day 1: Into the Mesmerising White Wilderness

Welcome to the extraordinary land of Kutch, where vast white salt deserts, ancient traditions, and timeless landscapes create an experience unlike any other. Upon your arrival at Bhuj Railway Station or Airport, our representative will warmly receive you and begin your journey towards the spectacular White Rann. En route, visit the majestic Kalo Dungar, the highest point in Kutch, standing approximately 1,500 feet above sea level. Home to the sacred...

Day 2: Along the Heavenly Road to an Ancient Civilization

After breakfast, begin your day with a drive along the iconic Road Through Heaven, one of Kutch's most photographed attractions. This remarkable road cuts through the vast salt marshes, creating the illusion of driving endlessly towards the horizon where the earth and sky appear to merge. The surreal landscape offers incredible photographic opportunities and a truly unique experience. Later, proceed towards Dholavira, one of the most significant...

Day 3: Discovering the Royal Soul of Bhuj

After breakfast, check out from the hotel and drive back towards Bhuj, the cultural heart of Kutch. Upon arrival, begin your heritage exploration with the elegant Aina Mahal, also known as the "Palace of Mirrors." Built during the 18th century, this royal palace beautifully combines Indian craftsmanship with European influences and is renowned for its intricate mirror work, royal artefacts, antique furniture, and lavish interiors. Adjacent to it...

Day 4: Memories of Resilience & Coastal Serenity

After breakfast, begin your final day with a visit to the world-class Smritivan Earthquake Museum (Closed on Mondays). Built in remembrance of the lives affected by the devastating 2001 Gujarat earthquake, the museum presents an inspiring story of resilience, recovery, and hope through immersive galleries, interactive exhibits, and panoramic viewpoints overlooking the city. It is widely regarded as one of India's finest museums. If time permits,...
